

Music Has Healing Power

Intern Position, Remote, Unpaid

Music Has Healing Power (MHHP) is a highly respected non-profit foundation which provides live music, musical instruments and music therapy rooms for hospitalized children and adults. MHHP is partnered with 22 Shriners Hospitals along with musical instrument manufacturing companies such as Remo Drum & Percussion, Zildjian, Gibson and more.

Social Media Manager Assistant

We are looking for a Social Media Manager (SMM) Assistant who can help enhance our foundation's social media presence by building online communities through our various social media platforms.

- Assists with the creation and administration of social media content, designed to educate, engage users and to create an interactive relationship.
- Assists in collecting and reviewing social media data to create more effective ad campaigns.
- Works closely with MHHP's Marketing/Social Media Producer to develop social media campaigns that help achieve marketing goals.
- Depending on the intern's software knowledge and strengths, tasks may include multimedia requests such as the creation of a sizzle reel and more.
